

Finding Your Roots Jewish Style

WHAT: Appointments with strategists, mentors, and translators

WHEN: Sunday, February 10, 1–3:30 p.m. (Registration required)

WHERE: Chicopee Public Library, 449 Front St., Chicopee, MA

Interested in learning more about your Jewish family roots? Whether you are a beginner or a more experienced researcher encountering a brick wall, this could be a perfect opportunity to propel your genealogy work forward.

Consult experienced researchers for 20-minute appointments. Explore getting started; plan your next steps; get translation help with documents; learn more about DNA testing and its interpretation.

Register by February 3 at wmjgs2@gmail.com or (413) 268-2147.

Walk-ins are welcome to peruse research materials. Some appointments with researchers may be available.
