

ILAN STAVANS

Genealogy and the Anti-Immigration Movement

Sunday, March 29, 2-4 pm
Jones Library, Amherst, MA

The noted author, professor, cultural commentator, and media personality reflects on . . .

- How does America approach its multilayered past in the Trump era?
- In what way is genealogy a battlefield in which our future will be decided?
- How are Latinos in particular thinking about their genealogical past?

Q&A, refreshments, book signing, schmoozing

The speaker suggests donations to support ancestry.com at Jones Library, making genealogy research accessible to all.

Western Massachusetts Jewish Genealogical Society

More info at: research@wmgjs.org